REV. W. A. ERWIN, Evangelist

GREAT MEETING IS BEING PLANNED FOR FLUVANNA

We are planning for a great meeting at Fluvanna, to begin about the 18 of this month. We will have the services of an evangelistic party, consisting of Rev. W. A. Erwin, his wife and son, of Amarillo. This is a strong and very successful evangelistic team. Mrs. Erwin will be at the piano while young Mr. Erwin will conduct the singing. These leaders, assisted by the splendid local talent of Fluvanna will favor the public with excellent and stirring music. The sermons will be of a high order of strong, logical, Gospel preaching. This company of workers draw great crowds and have splendid revivals almost everywhere they go. In view of this fact, we are planning to have out door meetings,—that is, under a tabernacle. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Presbyterian church.

All Christian people are cordially invited to co-operate and work, unhampered, for the salvation of souls and the glory of "Our Father"; and all the people are cordially invited to attend.

Very cordially,
JAS. H. TATE, Pastor.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
